

I support the broadcasting of weather and news information to truckers across the nations highway. This is not only helpful in routing their loads, but also is a safety factor. At this time they need all help they can get, with high fuel prices and the freight rates are not being adjusted, after all everyone of us depend on the trucking industry for our food, clothing and all our daily needs. THANKS